<sup>1</sup> Beginning with the statement for December 31, 1958, the computed average interest rate on the public debt is based upon the rate of effective yield for issues sold at premiums or discounts. Prior to December 31, 1958, the computed average rate was based upon the coupon rates of the securities. This rate did not materially differ from the rate computed on the basis of effective yield. The Treasury, however, announced on November 18, 1958, that there may be more frequent issues of securities sold with premiums or discounts whenever appropriate. This "effective-yield" method of computing the average interest rate on the public debt will more accurately reflect the interest cost to the Treasury, and is felt to be in accord with the intent of Congress where legislation has required the use of such rate for various purposes.

<sup>3</sup> Statutory debt limit was established at $285 billion by the Act approved June 30, 1959. The limit, including temporary increases, was $290 billion on June 30, 1959, $295 billion from July 1, 1959, to June 30, 1960, and $293 billion from July 1, 1960, to June 30, 1961. From July 1, 1961, to June 30, 1962, the limit, including a temporary increase of $13 billion, will be $298 billion. Thereafter it will revert to $285 billion.

For purposes of taxation the amount of discount at which the bills are originally sold by the United States is to be considered to be interest.

<sup>c</sup> Income derived from these securities is subject to all taxes now or hereafter imposed under the Internal Revenue Code or laws amendatory or supplementary thereto. The securities are subject to estate, inheritance, gift, or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority. The following is applicable to savings bonds only: For the purposes of taxation any increment in value of savings bonds represented by the difference between the price paid and the redemption value received (whether at or before maturity) shall be considered as interest.

Attention is invited to Treasury Decision 4550 ruling that bonds, notes, bills, and certificates of indebtedness of the Federal Government or its agencies, and the interest thereon, are not exempt from the gift tax.

NOTE: Treasury bonds, generally, are subject to the provisions of this footnote with the exception of the  $2\frac{3}{4}$ % Treasury bonds of 1960-65 which are subject to the provisions of footnote d below.

<sup>d</sup> Exempt both as to principal and interest, from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess profits and war-profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations. The interest on an amount of bonds authorized by the act approved Sept. 24, 1917, as amended, the principal of which does not exceed in the aggregate $5,000 owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes provided for in clause (b) above.

<sup>e</sup> These issues being investments of various Government funds and payable only for the account of such funds have no present tax liability.

<sup>f</sup> Any gain or loss derived from the exchange of the following securities will be taken into account for Federal income tax purposes upon the disposition or redemption of the new obligations: (1) exchange on June 23, 1960, of 2-1/2% Treasury bonds of 1961 for 3-3/4% Treasury notes, Series D-1964, or 3-7/8% Treasury bonds of 1968; (2) exchange on October 3, 1960, of 3-1/2% Treasury bonds of 1980 for 2-1/2% Treasury bonds of 1962-67, 3-1/2% Treasury bonds of 1990 for 2-1/2% Treasury bonds of 1963-68, 3-1/2% Treasury bonds of 1998 for 2-1/2% Treasury bonds of June 15, 1964-69 and 2-1/2% Treasury bonds of December 15, 1964-69; and (3) exchange on March 30, 1961, of 3-3/8% Treasury bonds of 1966 for 2-1/2% Treasury bonds of 1963, and 3-5/8% Treasury bonds of 1967 for 2-1/4% Treasury bonds of June 15, 1959-62, 2-1/4% Treasury bonds of December 15, 1959-62, and 2-5/8% Treasury notes, Series A-1963.

In hands of foreign holders--Applicable only to securities issued prior to Mar. 1, 1941: Bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness of the United States, shall, while beneficially owned by a nonresident alien individual, or a foreign corporation, partnership, or association, not engaged in business in the United States, be exempt both as to principal and interest from any and all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.
